

May 14, 2007

Planning for Tomorrow reviews growth management options

Public is invited to open house in Newmarket

NEWMARKET – This week, The Regional Municipality of York will hold its final Planning for Tomorrow open house on Tuesday, May 15th in the Town of Newmarket. Members of the public are invited to attend this session and learn about growth issues in York Region, discuss them and provide feedback.

This meeting is part of a series of six open houses slated for early May across York Region to provide opportunities for the public to participate in the Planning for Tomorrow discussions.

Meeting Date and Municipality	Location
Tuesday, May 15 th Town of Newmarket	Newmarket Civic Centre 395 Mulock Drive, Newmarket Council Chambers

Time and format for this event

6:00 to 7:00 p.m. - Open house

7:00 to 7:30 p.m. - Presentation

7:30 to 9:00 p.m. - Facilitated Discussion

Five meetings were held during the last two weeks in the City of Vaughan and the Towns of Markham, Richmond Hill, Aurora and East Gwillimbury.

Input received at the Planning for Tomorrow open houses will help Regional Council to make decisions on managing growth. Input will also be used to update the infrastructure master plans for water, wastewater, transit and transportation.

York Region's website – www.york.ca – provides information on the Region's Growth Management initiative as well as opportunities to submit online feedback. Click on the "Planning for Tomorrow" icon on the main page for more information, or email your comments or questions to futureyork@york.ca

- 30 -

Media Contact: Tim Paleczny, Corporate Communications, York Region
Phone: (905) 830-4444 Ext. 1238, (416) 297-9696 or Toll free 1-877-464-9675
Cell Phone: (905) 251-6413 Email: tim.paleczny@york.ca