Residents encouraged to discover fun activities in York Region

Official 2008 discovery guide to York Region now available

NEWMARKET – The Regional Municipality of York has re-vamped its tourism guide to allow visitors and residents alike more opportunities to uncover fun things to do here in York Region.

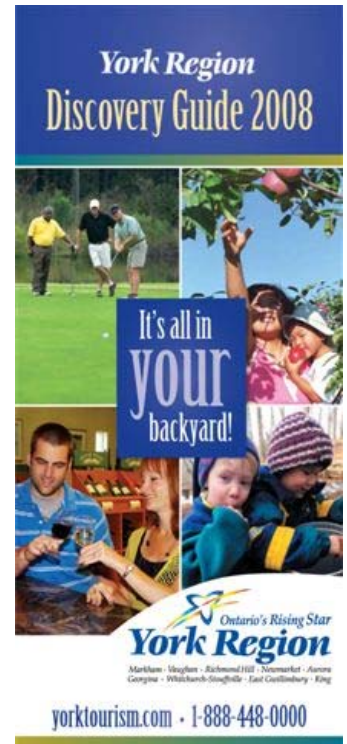

Discover York Region: 2008 Discovery Guide promotes awareness of our numerous outdoor, cultural, sporting, entertainment, shopping and dining activities in York Region. It features our historic villages, golf courses, parks and artistic and cultural activities.

Produced in partnership with the tourism industry, this 88-page guide features a fold-out map and promotional offers to a variety of attractions.

The 2008 Discovery Guide is available at York Region and area municipal offices.

You may order copies of the guide and travel information about York Region tourism opportunities via the Internet at www.yorktourism.com or obtain a printed copy by calling York Region Tourism at 905 883-3442 or toll-free at 1-888-448-0000.
