Dear Mr. Kelly:

Re: Upper York Sewage Solution Project

Town Council at its regular meeting held on December 12, 2011, discussed the Upper York Sewage Solution Project and the respective Regional Report entitled 'Upper York Sewage Solutions Project Update Project 74270' scheduled for discussion at the Regional Council Meeting of December 15, 2011, and passed the following motion:

"THAT TOWN COUNCIL REQUEST THE REGIONAL CLERK TO DEFER ANY CIRCULATION OF THE REGIONAL REPORT ENTITLED 'UPPER YORK SEWAGE SOLUTIONS PROJECT UPDATE PROJECT 74270' TO THE ONTARIO MINISTRY OF THE ENVIRONMENT AND TO THE CLERKS OF AURORA, EAST Gwillimbury, Newmarket, Georgina, Richmond Hill and Whitchurch-Stouffville pending, as part of the individual environmental assessment, a detailed scientific analysis of both options; being the Lake Ontario option through the York Durham sewage system and the Lake Simcoe option through the Upper York sewage solution;

and that such analysis would include the environmental impact for both options using information similar to that provided by the Lake Simcoe Region Conservation Authority, the Lake Simcoe Science Committee, full consultation with the Chipewas of Georgina Island First Nation and any other organization providing stewardship within the Lake Simcoe and Lake Ontario watersheds;

AND THAT THIS INFORMATION BE USED PRIOR TO DECLARING A PREFERRED ALTERNATIVE;

AND THAT THE VARIOUS STAKEHOLDERS INCLUDED IN THE REPORT BE INVITED TO SHARE THEIR EXPERTISE AND COMMENTS IN HELPING TO IDENTIFY THE PREFERRED ALTERNATIVE.”

We respectfully request consideration of this motion. If you have any questions or comments, please direct them to Winanne Grant, Chief Administrative Officer, by calling 905-476-4301, extension 301, or via e-mail wgrant@georgina.ca.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
FOR THE TOWN OF GEORGINA,
