

Year-End Investments in Housing

Delivering Opportunities for Ontario Renters (DOOR)

The Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing recognizes the contributions of Service Managers in enhancing the quality of life for the people of Ontario by providing rental housing for low income households.

To build on the success of municipal delivery of housing for low income households, the government announced in the 2007 Budget that it is providing a one-time grant of $127 million which is allocated as follows:
