

Family Strengthening Initiatives for 2005

Program	Key Activities	Eligibility Criteria	Served in 2005	Community Partners
All Our Kids (AOK)	- Provides York Region families with access to quality early child development and parenting centres. - Programs are intended to promote readiness to learn. - Programs are delivered by community agencies in sites across York Region.	- Children age birth to 6 years. - Parents, grandparents and caregivers residing in York Region.	3,934 children 2,589 families/caregivers	- Kinark Children and Family Services - Blue Hills Children and Family Centre - Pathways for Children, Youth and Families - Family Day Care Services - Bathurst Jewish Community Centre - City of Vaughan, Recreation and Culture Department - YMCA of Greater Toronto - York Region Neighbourhood Services - York Professional Care and Education Inc.
Ontario Works / National Child Benefit Summer Camp	Provides children with access to summer recreational programs offered by area municipal Parks and Recreation Departments	- Children of Ontario Works participants - Children of Social Housing residents	362 children of Ontario Works participants 161 children of Social Housing residents	Parks and Recreation Departments within all nine municipalities
Family Child Care Provider Training	- Training program representing both regulated and unregulated child care sectors - Strategy to enhance the quality of care received by families and their children residing in York Region. - Promotes quality and stable child care options for families in the Region	Unregulated child care providers residing in York Region	345 unregulated child care providers completed Level I training 245 unregulated child care providers completed Level II training	York Professional Care and Education Inc.

Family Strengthening Initiatives for 2005...continued

Program	Key Activities	Eligibility Criteria	Served in 2005	Community Partners
Positive Activities for Youth (PLAY)	Provides children with access to Municipal Recreation and Sport Programs	- Children age 4 to 12 years, of Ontario Works Participants - Children age 4 to 12 years of parents in receipt of Child Care Fee Assistance - Children age 4 to 12 years of parents residing in social housing	838 children	Parks and Recreation Departments within all 9 municipalities
Lead, Experience and Develop (LEAD); The York Region Youth Leadership Program	- Provides job skills training and certification for youth age 13 to 16 years in York Region - Provides free courses in aquatics, recreation and coaching	- Residents of York Region age 13 to 16 years residing in a Social Housing community and/or receiving Social Assistance - Youth must have parental consent - Youth must have a demonstrated financial need or a community referral (teacher, clergy, police)	25 youth enrolled in the pilot program	Parks and Recreation Departments within all nine municipalities
Social Housing After School Programs	- Provide a free-of-charge, after school program to children residing in four Social Housing sites in York Region - Provide a safe and positive after school environment which promotes positive social, emotional and physical development to children with various needs.	Children age 6 to 12 years residing in Social Housing sites.	241 children	York Professional Care and Education Inc.

Family Strengthening Initiatives for 2005...continued

Program	Key Activities	Eligibility Criteria	Served in 2005	Community Partners
Adolescent Leadership Camp	Provides Youth age 13 to 16 years with an opportunity to attend residential camps (Camp Rainbow or Hidden Bay Leadership Camp) for one week during the summer.	- Residents of York Region age 13 to 16 years residing in a Social Housing community and/or receiving Social Assistance - Youth must have parental consent.	62 youth attended Camp Rainbow 13 youth attended Hidden Bay Leadership Camp	- The Governing Council of the Salvation Army in Canada - York Professional Care and Education Inc.