Dear Denis Kelly,

Second Formal Consultation on Draft Proposed Source Protection Plan and Explanatory Document
Deadline for Comments – October 5, 2012 at 4:30pm
Pursuant to O.Reg.287/07 of the Clean Water Act, 2006

We are writing to advise that the second round of formal public consultation on the proposed source protection plan and explanatory document has started effective today. We are also writing to advise of your opportunity to provide comments by the deadline of Friday, October 5, 2012 at 4:30pm.

- One hard copy of the proposed source protection plan and one hard copy of the explanatory document have been enclosed with this letter.
- The proposed source protection plan also has a disk on the inside front cover that contains the approved assessment reports.
- If you submitted comments during the first formal consultation period that ended on June 15, 2012, thank you for those comments. To see all comments received and the committee's response, please refer to the disk on the inside front cover of the explanatory document.
- Electronic copies of everything are also available at our website at www.ourwatershed.ca.

This second formal consultation is your final opportunity to review the proposed source protection plan and explanatory document. Please note that all comments received during this second formal consultation period will be attached to the proposed source protection plan and explanatory document when they are submitted to the Ministry of Environment on October 22.
